(KULTO-06)

Tour Highlights:

- Agricultural Heritage Park
- Putrajaya Government Centre
- Dataran Putra
- Putrajaya Lake
- Prime Minister's Office, Putra Perdana
- Putra Bridge

'Most intelligent city in Malaysia'

Approximately 50-minute drive out of Kuala Lumpur is Putrajaya, Malaysia's new federal administrative centre. The architecture in Putrajaya is predominantly modern Arabic in style. Our first stop will be the 14-hectre Taman Warisan or Agricultural Heritage Park, a resource centre and a living museum showcasing the history and the glorious agriculture era. There are many varieties of fruit trees and plants, such as mango, rubber, cocoa, palm oil, durian, jackfruit, herbs, etc. A demonstration on the entire rubber-manufacturing process from the time it is tapped and churned out as fully smoked sheets will be shown during the tour. Next stop is at Putra Jaya Government Centre, where numerous new government complexes are located in this new township. Standing beside Dataran Putra and facing the Putrajaya Lake, is the Putra Mosque. Undoubtedly the most imposing structure, this pinkish mosque incorporates architectural elements from Turkestan, Kazakhstan and Morocco. The Prime Minister's office, Putra Perdana, is the eye catching building on the main hill with mixed architectural influences of Islamic and European cultures. Other interesting places include the 435-metre, three-deck Putra Bridge which provides vehicle, monorail and pedestrian access.

Historical Malacca

(KULTO-09)

Tour Highlights:

- Porta De Santiago
- Red Square
- Christ Church
- Cheng Hoon Teng Temple
- Jonker Street

Discover the historic centre of Malacca, an UNESCO world heritage site. This historic colonial town is a living testimony to the multi-cultural heritage of traditional Asian and European colonial influences. Here many battles were fought to gain control of this strategic base that facilitated the monopoly and control of the lucrative East Indies' spice trade. When the early European settlers departed, they left behind a treasure trove of historical buildings and landmarks synonymous with Malacca today.

Your tour will drive pass Bukit China or Chinese Hill - the largest Chinese cemetery outside of China. Stop at the foothill to view the Sultan's Well before driving through the Portuguese Settlement. Visit the famous gateway, 'Porta De Santiago' and the ruins of St. Paul's Church lined with 17th century Dutch tombstones.

Discover 'Red Square' - the salmon pink Dutch administrative buildings which today house the Malacca Museum and government offices. Visit Christ Church before proceeding for lunch. After lunch, visit the 'Abode Merciful Clouds' or the Cheng Hoon Teng Temple - the only temple where you can find the doctrines of the 3 major local Chinese beliefs of Taoism, Buddhism and Confucianism. Lastly, take a stroll along the famous Jonker Street, which houses rows of antique local shops.

Kuala Selangor & Fireflies River

(KULTO-10)

Tour Highlights:

- Kota Melawati
- Seafood dinner
- Nature Park where you may spot the Silvered-leaf monkeys, rare species of birds, butterflies, etc. (Sighting of wildlife is not guaranteed).
- Flashing "Christmas trees" along the river bank

The quiet hamlet of Kampung Kuantan in Kuala Selangor has one of the largest firefly colonies in the world. On arrival, visit 'Kota Melawati', formerly known as 'Fort Altingsburg', the Royal Mausoleum, ruined Fort and the legendary 100 steps (a fabled execution block). If you are lucky, you may spot the Silvered-leaf monkeys, rare species of birds and rare butterflies. At dusk, we proceed for a seafood dinner at a fishing village. After dinner, we take a short drive to Kampung Kuantan to board a typical Malay wooden row boat. The skilled oarsmen will row upstream into the darkness of the quiet night to witness one of nature's phenomena. As soon as your eyes are well adjusted to the dark, behold rows of flashing "Christmas trees" along the riverbank! The tiny twinkling orangey lights amongst the mangrove trees are synchronized, rhythmic scintillation produced by thousands of fireflies. Truly a magical sight!
